Meeting summary:

All meetings were done in the ERC building

Wednesday 12/8 @ 5 PM: We worked on our respective parts of RecipeBuddy. The team news webpage was finished, all that is needed is some final documentation to be inserted. We met for an hour.

Thursday 12/9 @ 8 AM: We went over what parts we want to talk about during our presentation later today. We met for an hour.

Friday 12/10 @ 11 AM: Taylor demoed local hosting for the group to allow us to work on the backend locally. We were able to make changes and have them update in real-time as opposed to having to push to github to view the page. We met for an hour.

Sunday 12/12 @ 12 PM: We began testing documents and set it up to finish during finals week. We planned what final functionality to implement for our viable minimal product. We met for two hours.
